— Sera Clamp (“evening” in Italian), is an indoor candle bulb lamp: a sculptural object, reinterpreted with a burnished iron table clamp. Its removable lampshade has a white side and one in brass or copper, in order to create different pattern of light distribution and reflection according to the occasion: brighter in white, warmer through the metals.

Matte burnished iron structure and lampshade with a RAL 9010 white varnished side and a natural polished brass side *
